19. VACANCIES ON THE BOARD

19.1 CASUAL VACANCIES

Any casual vacancy occurring in the position of Director may be filled by the remaining Directors from among appropriately qualified persons. Any casual vacancy may only be filled for the remainder of the Director's term under this Constitution.

19.2 GROUNDS FOR TERMINATION OF DIRECTOR

In addition to the circumstances in which the office of a Director becomes vacant by virtue of the Act, the office of a Director becomes vacant if the Director:

- (a) Dies
- (b) becomes bankrupt or makes any arrangement or composition with his creditors generally
- (c) becomes of unsound mind or a person whose person or estate is liable to be dealt with in anyway under the law relating to mental health
- (d) resigns his office in writing to LRSLSC
- (e) should any member of the Committee absent himself from any three meetings, his office in the Club and position as a member of the Management Committee may be declared vacant. The Management Committee may elect another member to hold office and fill his place on the Management Committee until the next Annual General Meeting.
- (f) holds any office of employment within LRSLSC without the approval of the Board
- (g) is directly or indirectly interested in any contract or proposed contract with LRSLSC and fails to declare the nature of that interest

 - (i) has acted in a manner unbecoming or prejudicial to the Objects and interests of LRSLSC
 - (ii) has brought LRSLSC into disrepute
- (i) is removed by Special Resolution; or
- (j) would otherwise be prohibited from being a Director of a corporation under the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth.)

19.3 BOARD MAY ACT

In the event of a casual vacancy or vacancies in the office of a Director or Directors, the remaining Directors may act. However, if the number of remaining Directors is not sufficient to constitute a quorum at a meeting of the Board, they may act only for the purpose of increasing the number of Directors to a number sufficient to constitute a quorum.

20. MEETINGS OF THE BOARD

20.1 BOARD TO MEET

- (a) The Management Committee shall meet at least once each calendar month. At least five (5) days notice of such meeting shall be given to all members of the Management Committee. Seven (7) members present shall form a quorum.

- (b) The following sub-boards as previously listed are required to provide a written report on all areas of operation to their director seven (7) days prior to the board of management meeting.

20.2 DECISIONS OF BOARD

Subject to this Constitution, questions arising at any meeting of the Board shall be decided by a majority of votes and a determination of a majority of directors shall for all purposes be deemed a determination of the Board. All directors shall have one vote on any question. Where voting is equal, the chairperson may exercise a casting vote. If the chairperson does not exercise a casting vote, the motion will be lost.

20.3 RESOLUTIONS NOT IN MEETING

A resolution in writing that has been signed or assented to by electronic communication by all the directors shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of directors duly convened and held. Any such resolution may consist of several documents in like form each signed by one or more of the directors.

20.4 CHAIRPERSON

The board shall appoint a chairperson from among its number. The chairperson shall be the nominal head of LRSLSC and will act as chair of any Board meeting or General Meeting at which he is present. If the chairperson is not present, or is unwilling or unable to preside at a Board meeting the remaining Directors shall appoint another Director to preside as chair for that meeting only.

20.5 CONFLICT OF INTEREST

A Director shall declare his interest in any contractual, selection, disciplinary, or financial matter in which a conflict of interest arises or may arise. He shall, unless otherwise determined by the Board, absent himself from discussions of such matters and shall not be entitled to vote in respect of such matters. If the director casts a vote, the vote shall not be counted. In the event of any uncertainty as to whether it is necessary for a Director to absent himself from discussions and refrain from voting, the issue should be immediately determined by vote of the Board. If this is not possible, the matter shall be adjourned or deferred.

20.6 DISCLOSURE OF INTEREST

- (a) The nature of the interest of a director must be declared at the meeting of the board at which the relevant matter is first taken into consideration, if the interest then exists. In any other case, the interest should be revealed to the Board at the next meeting of the Board. If a director becomes interested in a matter after it is made or entered into, the declaration of the interest must be made at the first meeting of the Board held after the director becomes interested.
- (b) All disclosed interests must also be disclosed to each annual general meeting in accordance with the Act.

20.7 GENERAL DISCLOSURE

A general notice stating that a director is a member of any specified firm or company and that he is 'interested' in all transactions with that firm or company is sufficient declaration under clause 20.7. After the distribution of the general notice, it is not necessary for the director to give a special notice regarding any particular transaction with that firm or company

20.8 RECORDING DISCLOSURES

Any declaration made, any disclosure of any general notice given by a director in accordance with clauses 20.6 and/or 20.7 must be recorded in the minutes of the relevant meeting.

21. DELEGATIONS

21.1 BOARD MAY DELEGATE FUNCTIONS

The Board may, by instrument in writing, create, establish or appoint special committees, individual officers and consultants to carry out specific duties and functions.

It will determine what powers these committees are given. In exercising its power under this clause, the board must take into account broad stakeholder involvement.

21.2 DELEGATION BY INSTRUMENT

In the establishing instrument, the Board may delegate such functions as are specified in the instrument, other than:

- (a) this power of delegation; and
- (b) a function imposed on the Board or the executive officer by the Act, any other law, this Constitution, or by resolution of LRSLSC in a General Meeting.

21.3 DELEGATED FUNCTION EXERCISED IN ACCORDANCE WITH TERMS

A function, the exercise of which has been delegated under this clause, may, while the delegation remains unrevoked, be exercised from time to time in accordance with the terms of the delegation.

21.4 PROCEDURE OF DELEGATED ENTITY

The procedures for any entity exercising delegated power shall, subject to this Constitution and with any necessary or incidental amendment, be the same as that applicable to meetings of the Board under clause 20. The entity exercising delegated powers shall make decisions in accordance with the Objects, and it shall promptly provide the Board with details of all material decisions. The entity shall also provide any other reports, minutes and information required by the Board.

21.5 DELEGATION MAY BE CONDITIONAL

A delegation under this clause may be made subject to certain conditions or limitations regarding the exercise of any functions. These may be specified in the delegation.

21.6 REVOCATION OF DELEGATION

At any time the Board may, by instrument in writing, revoke wholly or in part any delegation made under this clause. It may amend or repeal any decision made by a body or person under this clause.

22. GENERAL MEETINGS

- (a) The Annual General Meeting of the Club shall be held in the month of August each year to receive the Annual Report and Financial Statement for the past year, elect officers for the ensuing year and transact general business. Fourteen (14) days written notice of such meeting shall be given to each member.
- (b) A General Meeting of the Club shall be held in the month of February in each year. Fourteen days written notice of such meetings shall be given to each member.
- (c) The Secretary, upon a request in writing signed by twenty (20) financial members entitled to vote in accordance with clause 7 stating the business to be discussed, shall call a Special General Meeting for a date within twenty one (21) days of the request. Seven (7) days written notice of such meeting shall be given to each member of the Club.
- (d) The Executive Committee or Management Committee may call a Special General Meeting at any time. Seven (7) days, notice of such meeting shall be given to each member.
- (e) Twenty members shall form a quorum at all General Meetings and if there should not be a quorum present thirty (30) minutes after the time for which the Meeting was called, then the Meeting shall stand adjourned for one week at the same place and hour, if at the adjourned meeting a quorum of twenty (20) members is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting will lapse.

- (f) All officers of the Club shall vacate their positions as from the time election of office bearers takes place at the Annual General Meeting.
- (g) All members of the Management Committee, Life Members, Distinguished Service Members, Country Members, Long Serving Members, Active Reserve Members and Active Members shall be entitled to vote (provided they are financial) at any General Meeting of the Club.
- (h) Notices of any motion intended to be moved at any General Meeting shall be given in writing by the mover thereof to the Secretary at least seven (7) days prior to the date of such meeting.
- (i) The accidental omission to give any notice of any General Meeting above mentioned to any member shall not invalidate any resolution passed at any such meeting.
- (j) Any General Meeting of the Club may be adjourned to any future date, to be determined by the Meeting.
- (k) Members absent from an Annual or General Meeting of the Club may not appoint a proxy to vote on their behalf.
- (l) If nominations are not received in writing for any position then the meeting may nominate and elect a member for the same.

22.1 RULES OF VOTING

- (a) The Chairman shall have a deliberate and casting vote at any meeting.
- (b) In the event of any matter being brought before any meeting which affects the Chairman of the meeting, or in which he may be interested, he shall vacate the Chair and the meeting shall elect a Chairman pro tem until the matter is dealt with.
- (c) The "first past the post" method of voting shall be employed at all meetings.
- (d) Voting shall be by the voices, show of hands or division by request of any member.
- (e) If a secret ballot is demanded at any meeting by two members, who are present thereat, it shall be taken upon such conditions as the Chairman of such meeting directs.
- (f) The Chairman may appoint tellers to assist him in counting a vote by show of hands or division, or at a secret ballot.

- (g) The mover of an original motion must obtain the consent of his seconder and the approval of the meeting before making any alteration to the wording of his motion.
- (h) An amendment having been moved, it shall not be competent to move any further amendment but notice may be given of intention to move such further amendment when the previous amendment has been disposed of. Only one amendment can be considered at the same time.
- (i) In the absence of the President or Executive Vice President, the Chairman of all meetings shall be elected by vote of the members in attendance.

23. SPECIAL GENERAL MEETINGS

23.1 SPECIAL GENERAL MEETINGS MAY BE HELD

The Board may, whenever it thinks fit, convene a special general meeting. When, but for this clause, more than fifteen months elapses between annual general meetings, the Board shall convene a special general meeting before the expiration of that period.

23.2 REQUISITION OF SPECIAL GENERAL MEETINGS

- (a) The secretary will convene a special general meeting when 20 members (no less) submit a requisition in writing.
- (b) The requisition for a special general meeting shall state the object(s) of the meeting, be signed by the Members making the requisition and be sent to LRSLSC. The requisition may consist of several documents in a like form, each signed by one or more of the Members making the requisition.
- (c) If the Board does not cause a special general meeting to be held one month after the date in which the requisition is sent to LRSLSC, the Members making the requisition, or any of them, may convene a special general meeting to be held no later than three months after that date.
- (d) A special general meeting convened by Members under this Constitution shall be convened in the same manner, or as close as possible, as those convened by the Board.

24. GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES

- (a) The grievance procedure set out in this rule applies to disputes under these rules between a Member and:
 - (i) Another Member; or
 - (ii) LRSLSC.
- (b) The parties to the dispute must meet and discuss the matter in dispute, and, if possible, resolve the dispute within fourteen days after the dispute comes to the attention of all parties.

(c) If the parties are unable to resolve the dispute at the meeting, or if a party fails to attend that meeting, then the parties must, within ten (10) days, refer the dispute for resolution to an independent tribunal established by SLSSNB in accordance with the procedures determined by SLSSNB from time to time.

(d) The board may prescribe additional grievance procedures in the Regulations consistent with this clause 24 (d).

25. RECORDS AND ACCOUNTS

25.1 RECORDS

LRSLSC shall establish and maintain proper records and minutes concerning all of its transaction, business, meetings and dealings (including those of LRSLSC and the Board). It shall produce these as appropriate at each Board or general meeting.

25.2 RECORDS KEPT IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE ACT

Property accounting and other records shall be kept in accordance with the Act. The books of account shall be kept in the care and control of the Secretary.

25.3. BOARD TO SUBMIT ACCOUNTS

The Board shall submit LRSLSC's statement of accounts to the members at the annual general meeting in accordance with this Constitution and the Act.

25.4 ACCOUNTS CONCLUSIVE

The statements of account, when approved or adopted by an annual general meeting, shall be conclusive except when errors have been discovered within three months after such approval or adoption.

25.5 ACCOUNTS TO BE SENT TO MEMBERS

The Secretary shall cause to be sent to all persons entitled to receive notice of annual general meetings in accordance with this Constitution, a copy of the statements of account, the Board's report, the auditor's report and every other document required under the Act (if any)

25.6 NEGOTIABLE INSTRUMENTS

All cheques, promissory notes, bankers, drafts, bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments, and all receipts for money paid to LRSLSC, shall be signed, drawn, accepted, endorsed or otherwise executed, as the case may be, by any two duly authorised directors or in such other manner as the Board determines.

26. AUDITOR

- (a) A properly qualified auditor or auditors shall be appointed by LRSLSC in a general meeting. The auditor's duties shall be regulated in accordance with the Act. If no relevant provisions exist under the Act the duties shall be regulated in accordance with the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth.) and generally accepted principles and/or any applicable code of conduct. The auditor may be removed by LRSLSC in a general meeting.
- (b) The accounts of LRSLSC shall be examined and the correctness of the profit and loss accounts and balance sheets ascertained by an auditor or auditors at the conclusion of each financial year.

27. INCOME

27.1. Income and property of the association shall be derived from such sources as the board determines from the time to time.

27.2 The income and property of LRSLSC shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects.

27.3 Except as prescribed in this constitution or the act:

- (a) no portion of the income or property of LRSLSC shall be paid or transferred, directly or indirectly, by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise to any Member
- (b) No remuneration or other benefit in money or money's worth shall be paid or given by LRSLSC to any Member who holds any office in LRSLSC.

27.4 Payment in good faith of or to any member can be made for:

- (a) any services actually rendered to LRSLSC whether as an employee, director or otherwise
- (b) goods supplied to LRSLSC in the ordinary and usual course of operation
- (c) interest on money borrowed from any Member
- (d) rent for premises demised or let by any Member to LRSLSC; or
- (e) any out-of-pocket expenses incurred by a Member on behalf of LRSLSC.

Nothing in clauses 27.2 or 27.3 preclude such payments provided they do not exceed the amount ordinarily payable between ordinary commercial parties dealing at arm's length in a similar transaction.

28. WINDING UP

- (a) Subject to this Constitution LRSLSC may be wound up in accordance with the Act.
- (b) The liability of the Members of LRSLSC is limited.
- (c) Every Member undertakes to contribute to the assets of LRSLSC in the event of it being wound up while a Member, or within one year after ceasing to be a Member, for payment of the debts and liabilities of LRSLSC contracted before the time at which they ceased to be a Member and toward the costs, charges and expenses of winding up LRSLSC, such an amount not exceeding one dollar ($1.00)

29. DISTRIBUTION OF PROPERTY ON WINDING UP

If upon winding up or dissolution of LRSLSC there remains, after satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any assets or property, they shall not be paid to or distributed among the Members. Instead, the assets or property shall be given to or transferred to another organisation(s) that has Objects similar to those of LRSLSC. The organisation(s) must prohibit the distribution of its income and property among its Members to an extent at least as great as that imposed on LRSLSC by this Constitution. The organisation(s) is to be determined by the Members in a general meeting at or before the time of dissolution. If this does not occur, the decision is to be made by a judge of the Supreme Court of New South Wales or other court as may have or acquire jurisdiction in the matter.

30. ALTERATION OF CONSTITUTION

- (a) No addition, alteration or amendment shall be made to this Constitution unless the same has been approved by a Special Resolution at a General Meeting of which twenty-one (21) days notice shall be given to LRSLSC members. Such notice shall state the exact nature of the proposed addition, alteration or amendment.
- (b) Provided that the relevant Minister for the time being administering the Associations Incorporation Act 2009 shall be notified of the amendment and such amendment shall not be effective unless it has been lodged with the relevant Minister.
- (c) The Public Officer shall within one month after the passing of a special resolution relating to the addition, alteration or amendment of this Constitution, lodge with the Department of Fair Trading notice of the change in the prescribed form.

31. REGULATIONS

31.1 BOARD TO FORMULATE REGULATIONS

The Board may formulate, issue, adopt, interpret and amend Regulations for the proper advancement, management and administration of LRSLSC, the advancement of the purposes of LRSLSC and Surf Life Saving in the local area. Such Regulations must be consistent with the Constitution and any policy directives of the Board.

31.2 REGULATIONS BINDING

All Regulations are binding on LRSLSC and all Members.

31.3 REGULATIONS DEEMED APPLICABLE

All clauses, rules, regulations and regulations of LRSLSC in force at the date of the approval of this Constitution (as long as such clauses, rules, regulations and regulations are not inconsistent with or have been replaced by, this Constitution) shall be deemed to be Regulations and shall continue to apply.

31.4 BULLETINS BINDING ON MEMBERS

Amendments, alterations, interpretations or other changes to Regulations shall be advised to Members by means of bulletins approved by the Board and prepared and issued by LRSLSC. LRSLSC shall take reasonable steps to distribute information in the bulletins to Members. The matters in the bulletins are binding on all members.

32. STATUS AND COMPLIANCE OF CLUB

32.1 CONSTITUTION OF LRSLSC

This Constitution will clearly reflect the Objects of SLSSNB and will conform to their Constitution, subject always to the Act.

32.2 SLSSNB AND SLSNSW

LRSLSC may not resign, disaffiliate or otherwise seek to withdraw from SLSSNB and/or SLSNSW without approval by Special Resolution.

33. NOTICE

- (a) Notices may be given by LRSLSC to any person entitled under this Constitution to receive any notice. The notice can be sent by pre-paid post or facsimile transmission or, where available, by electronic mail to the member's registered address or facsimile number or electronic mail address. In the case of a delegate the notice can be sent to the last recorded address, facsimile number or electronic mail address.
- (b) Where a notice is sent by post, service of the notice shall be deemed to be effected by properly addressing, prepaying and posting the notice. Service of the notice is deemed to have been effected three days after posting.
- (c) Where a notice is sent by facsimile transmission, service of the notice shall be deemed to be effected upon receipt of a confirmation report confirming the facsimile was sent to/or received at the facsimile number to which it was sent.

- (d) Where a notice is sent by electronic mail, service of the notice shall be deemed to be effected the next business day after it was sent.

34. INDEMNITY

- (a) Every director and employee of LRSLSC will be indemnified out of the property and assets of LRSLSC against any liability incurred by them in their capacity as director or employee in defending any proceedings, civil or criminal, in which judgement is given in their favour or in which they are acquitted or connected with any application in relation to any such proceedings in which relief is granted by the Court.
- (b) LRSLSC shall indemnify its directors and employees against all damages and losses (including legal costs) for which any such director or employee may be or become liable to any third party in consequence of any act or omission, except wilful misconduct:
 - (i) In the case of a director, performed or made while acting on behalf of and with the authority, express or implied, of LRSLSC; or
 - (ii) In the case of an employee, performed or made in the course of, and within the scope of, their employment by LRSLSC.

BYLAWS

1. INTERPRETATIONS

In these By-Laws unless the contrary intention appears:

“Season” means the current surfing season as set by SLSA and SLSSNB.

“Board” means the body managing Long Reef SLSC

“Club” means “Long Reef Surf Life Saving Club Incorporated” as laid down in the Constitution.

“Captain” shall mean “the Captain of the Club for the time being”.

“IRB” shall mean “the Inflatable Rescue Boat and Motor”.

2. PATROLS

- (a)
 - (i) The Captain shall prepare a patrol roster before the beginning of each season and supply a copy to each Active, Probationary and Under 16 member. A copy shall also be displayed on the notice board and in the patrol book and every member shall be personally responsible to acquaint themselves with the dates and hours of their patrols and shall attend at the beach for patrol duty on those dates and at those hours.
 - (ii) Should a member arrive late for a patrol then the Captain shall if they deem fit request the late-comer to make up such time on the succeeding patrol, add the time lost to such member’s next patrol or otherwise penalise them for such lateness.
- (b) Patrols shall be under the control of Patrol Captains who shall be responsible to the Captain and shall report to the Captain for necessary action any members who fail to attend, arrive late, leave early, are not in uniform and ready for instant call during their patrol hours, leave the patrol area without the permission of the Patrol Captain or fail to carry out the Patrol Captain’s orders. All members on patrol must wear SLSA approved patrolling uniform & patrol caps and shall sign the patrol book on commencing and leaving patrolling duty.
- (c) A member who is unable to attend their patrol should find a substitute but shall be responsible for non-attendance if the substitute fails to attend. If such member is unable to find a substitute they must notify the Captain twenty-four (24) hours before the commencement of their patrol stating their reason for inability to attend the patrol.
- (d) Patrol Captains are responsible to ensure that each member of their patrol has completed their respective annual proficiency updates in consultation with the Chief Assessor. This includes but is not limited to Surf Rescue Certificate, Bronze Medallion, Advanced Resuscitation, Defibrillation, ATV, Silver Medallion IRB Drivers and IRB Crewman's. Such proficiencies MUST be completed by the 31st December each year. FAILURE to complete the proficiency by this date renders members ineligible to participate in any form of competition or continue patrols. The proficiency can only be signed off by a qualified SLSA Assessor.

- (e) Patrol Captains shall be responsible for the efficiency of their patrols and shall at the commencement of each patrol detail the position each person is to take in the event of a rescue.
- (f) In the absence of a Patrol Captain the patrol Vice-Captain or any other member so appointed shall assume the responsibilities, powers and authority of the Patrol Captain.
- (g) In the event of a patrol finishing it's allotted time and no member of the following patrol being present to relieve it, the Patrol Captain shall report to the Captain and the patrol shall carry on until relieved.
- (h)
 - (i) The first patrol on duty each day shall see that all life-saving gear is placed in position on the beach and the last patrol each day shall return all gear to the Clubhouse and ensure that it is appropriately washed
 - (ii) For the purposes of (i) above, life-saving gear shall be deemed as in accordance with SLSA standard operating procedures and patrol operating procedures.
 - 1. The Patrol Captain is also responsible for the clubs ATV in accordance with SLSA standard operating procedures and regulations.
 - 2. At the conclusion of patrol each day or during the patrol the ATV should be washed and hosed thoroughly before putting it away. Any person found to be acting inappropriately, recklessly or driving the vehicle without a license or outside its intended purpose will be called before the board for further investigation and appropriate action
 - (iii) For the purposes of patrol and training the IRB driver on patrol duty will be responsible for the use of the IRB but must follow any directives of the Patrol Captain. Should no IRB driver be on duty the Patrol Captain must immediately make arrangements to contact an alternate driver and advise the Club Captain.
- (i) The first patrol on duty each day shall see that the Clubhouse and surroundings are swept thoroughly and generally tidied at the beginning of their patrol and the last patrol each day shall leave the Clubhouse and it's surroundings in a clean and tidy condition and see that all windows and doors are closed and locked.

- (j) Members wishing to transfer from one patrol to another may do so only with the consent of the Captain.
- (k) Members of patrol who are candidates for any award of SLSA will be granted leave to attend classes on notification to the Patrol Captain.
- (l) It shall be a breach of patrol By-laws for a member to attend any patrol duty not suitably attired and ready for instant call.
- (m) It shall be the responsibility of Patrol Captains to check all gear allotted for the use of patrols. All discrepancies/issues should be reported to the Captain.
- (n) Patrol Captains are advised to make themselves conversant with local government ordinances relating to the powers of surf clubs, beach inspectors, etc. The utmost discretion should be used in all dealings with the general public.

Abuse of any person by a Patrol Captain or a member of a patrol will not be tolerated and will be severely dealt with.

3. DIRECTORS DUTIES

The following represent the main duties of the directors of the Club but may be altered from time to time by the Board of Management as it sees fit.

- (a) Every reference to the Judiciary Committee shall be in a clear and unambiguous form and shall clearly set out the matter required to be investigated by the Judiciary Committee.
- (b) The Secretary shall give to the subject of the inquiry at least seven (7) days notice in writing of the time and place appointed for the investigation. Such notice shall clearly set out:
 - (i) The matter to be investigated.
 - (ii) The time, date and place of the meeting.
 - (iii) That the member may call such relevant witnesses as he desires.
 - (iv) That the member may, by five (5) days notice to the Secretary prior to the meeting, apply for an adjournment.
 - (v) That the member may, by four (4) days notice in writing to the Secretary, request to have available at the inquiry the members whose names and addresses are therein furnished.
 - (vi) That the member shall not be entitled to legal representation as of right, but that he may apply for such representation at the commencement of the inquiry.
- (c) The Secretary may then grant such adjournment if the grounds for requesting the same appear to him to be reasonable. His discretion in this respect is absolute.
 - (i) The Judiciary Committee shall have power to require the attendance of any member at any investigation by the committee. The Secretary shall give at least three (3) days notice in writing to a member informing him of the time and place of the investigation and that he is required to attend and shall give such notice to any member whom the subject of the inquiry requests him in writing at least three (3) days before the day appointed for the investigation to call as witnesses.

- (ii) If a witness is unable to attend at any meeting as aforesaid it shall be competent for him to submit a written statement setting out all facts in his possession concerning the charge.
- (d) In the case of an adjournment under By-law 11(b)(iv) the Judiciary Committee shall decide the time and place for such adjourned investigation. The same rules of procedure as for an ordinary Judiciary Committee meeting shall apply in the case of an adjourned Judiciary Committee.
- (e) At the inquiry:
 - (i) The charge or reference to the Judiciary Committee shall be read to the member concerned.
 - (ii) The evidence in support of the charge shall be tendered.
 - (iii) The evidence called by the subject of the inquiry shall be tendered.
 - (iv) Each witness shall be subject to examination by the party (if any) on whose behalf he is called and then to cross-examination by the opposing party or parties. The party calling the witness shall have the right to re-examine him but no other examination or cross-examination shall be allowed except by the leave of the Judiciary Committee.
 - (v) Hearsay and irrelevant evidence shall not be admitted if objected to by any party concerned or by the Chairman.
 - (vi) Witnesses other than the party charged shall remain out of the hearing of the inquiry until called upon to give their evidence.
 - (vii) The Judiciary Committee may adjourn the inquiry from time to time as it thinks fit. Notice of any adjourned meeting shall be given either to the parties and witnesses present when the adjournment is decided on or by notice in writing at least two (2) days before the day of the adjourned hearing.
 - (viii) After the evidence has been completed the Judiciary Committee shall consider the same in camera and report its decision to the next meeting of the Board of Management or to the parties concerned as it thinks fit.

The quorum of a meeting of the Board of Management shall be three (3).

- (f) Any member who fails without reasonable excuse to comply with requirements of any notice addressed to him by the Secretary shall be subject to such action as the Board of Management on the report of the Judiciary Committee think fit. If any member fails to attend a meeting of the Judiciary Committee that he has been called before, then he shall be automatically suspended until he arranges a new date and time for his appearance, unless the member has arranged for an adjournment under By-law 11(b)(iv).
- (g) Any member witnessing a breach of the Club Constitution or By-laws or conduct of a member prejudicial to the interests of the Club must immediately notify the Captain who shall either cite the offender to appear before the Judiciary Committee or take other such action as he deems fit.

- (h) The Secretary shall at the conclusion of each Judiciary Committee meeting furnish the Captain with a list of all members dealt with at such Judiciary Committee meeting and it shall be then the responsibility of the Captain to see that any penalty imposed is carried out. The Captain shall then submit a report of his actions in this respect to each Board of Management meeting.
